Runners participating in the Olympic Training Camp on the University of Montana campus will conclude their three-week training session Saturday (July 31) with a ten-mile road race in Kalispell.

The race is scheduled to begin at 1:30 p.m. in Woodland Park, according to Camp Director and UM Track Coach Harley Lewis.

The Kalispell Chamber of Commerce has scheduled a picnic in Woodland Park for the 22 contestants after the race has been completed.

The camp, which began July 12, is for 5,000 and 10,000 meter and marathon runners.
